INTRODUCTION

TripAdvisor, the most trusted source for where to eat, sleep and play in thousands of destinations around the world, has collected the best insider tips from its 34 million monthly visitors to produce a unique series of travel guides. In addition to the best hotels, restaurants and attractions for every type of traveler, you'll get great advice about what to pack, how to get around and where to find the best views. Be sure to check out the guides at www.tripadvisor.com.

You'll find reviews for more than 479,000 hotels, 93,000 attractions and 580,000 restaurants on TripAdvisor.com. Learn from other travelers what to expect before you make your plans.

PACKING TIPS

1. The weather is unpredictable so “bring clothes for two seasons.”—TripAdvisor Member
2. “Watch for pickpockets, try and fit in, don't stare at your map on the street or carry your camera out where everyone can see. Bring good shoes—you will need them. You're in for sore legs at the end of the day.”—TripAdvisor Member
3. “A tip for all those who want to go to The Van Gogh Museum. If you just turn up on the day, the queues are usually long. To get around this, you can buy (and print) your tickets via their web site, then just walk past the queues at the museum. Tickets bought online are open, you are not required to specify a day or time in advance.”—TripAdvisor Member

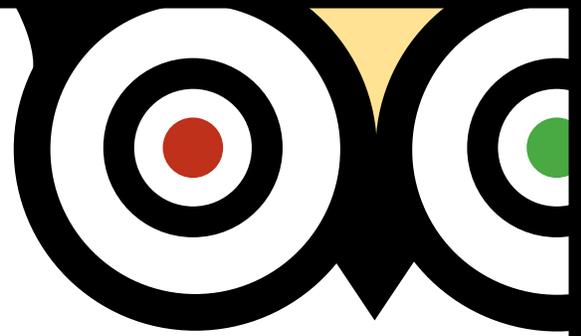

Inside

AMSTERDAM

Amsterdam is one of those places with a slap-yourself-on-the-forehead name: “Amsteldamme” was born from a village where the Amstel River was dammed in the late 13th-century. With all that water... but of course! Today, Amsterdam is home to some 750,000 people (many of them on bicycles) and countless tourists (many of them jumping out of the way of bicycles). The center is divided into neighborhoods—the new and old sides of the old town, surrounded by a ring of canals, and then mainly residential areas like Jordaan, considered by many to be the best place in town. Winters are typically frosty while summers are warm and temperate, but the weather is always unpredictable and rain is possible at any time of the year. Keep that umbrella handy!

In this city, you'll find captivating views from nearly every bridge, world-class art in a nearly incomprehensible number of museums and friendly locals. While cafes serving marijuana and the Red Light District are a part of Amsterdam, you'll find they are but footnotes to an overall experience of culture and (G-rated) fun.

AMSTERDAM'S BEST VIEWS

"Join a canal cruise for a photo opportunity of this gorgeous scene. You can only see the seven bridges that cross the Reguliersgracht from a boat."—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

St. Nicolaas Boat Club, Boom Chicago, Leidsplein

The choice for a drink with a view is "unquestionably Twenty Third Bar on the 23rd floor of the Okura Hotel. It has a fantastic cocktail bar and the best view of the city!"—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

Twenty Third Bar, Hotel Okura, Ferdinand Bolstraat 333, 020 678 7111

"The climb to the top of Westerkerk (West Church) is well worth it! They only take 4-6 people at a time, so you may have to wait. But once you are up there on a clear day you can see all of Amsterdam."—TripAdvisor Member, St. Louis, Mo.

Westerkerk, Prinsengracht 281, 020 624 7766

NEMO is "perfect for children. Fantastic workshops—we loved the science lab, the police workshop with your photo taken, etc. We ran out of time because we thought three hours would be enough. We should have spent more than four or five."—TripAdvisor Member, Catalonia, Spain

newMetropolis Science and Technology Center (NEMO), Oosterdok 2, 020 531 3233

"The Botanical Garden was by far the best attraction we visited. It's small, but at about 7 euro, it's excellent value." Be sure the kids don't miss the Butterfly Garden. "It's an oasis in the sometimes overwhelming hustle and bustle of the city."—TripAdvisor Member

Botanical Garden (Hortus Botanicus), Plantage Middenlaan 2a, 120 625 9021

For "a little slice of Holland" about 30 minutes north of the city, Zaanse Schans "is very relaxing and shows you the real way of life away from the faster pace of Amsterdam. The cheese-making shop is worth a visit, and the goats and other animals will give you some laughter. Or get your picture taken in one of the large clogs outside the clog factory."—TripAdvisor Member, Belfast, Northern Ireland

Zaanse Schans, Schandsend 7, Zandaam, 075 616 2862

ROMANCE

"The Tuschinski is one of the most well-known cinemas in Europe. Its interior is a beautiful mixture of art nouveau and art deco decoration and had a major restoration a few years ago. It's well worth a visit, even if you aren't going to see a film, as they also do guided tours of the building."—TripAdvisor Member, London, England

Tuschinski Theater, 26-34 Reguliersbreestraat, 020 428 1060

"Vondelpark is wicked! I have visited 'The Dam' quite a few times and can honestly say that Vondelpark is the nicest place to go. If you are there with a loved one, just lie on the grass and chill out. You could be a million miles from anywhere. Fantastic!"—TripAdvisor Member, Birmingham, England

Vondelpark, City center

"This little club off the Leidesplein is a diamond in the rough. The best jazz masters in Europe regularly cruise through and display their talents. Alto Jazz is a site you shouldn't miss."—TripAdvisor Member, Columbus, Ga.

Alto Jazz Café, Korte Leidesdwardsstraat 115, 020 626 3249

"You could be a million miles from anywhere."

BUDGET

"If you're looking for a quirky way to get into some of the lesser known canal districts, St. Nicolaas Boat Club is a great option. You sign up in advance for a ride, meet outside Boom Chicago and go. At the end of the ride, you can give a donation which helps to maintain the boats."—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

St. Nicolaas Boat Club, Leidseplein 12

"Stepping into the Begijnhof from the busy street of the Nieuwendijk was like going through a time machine: from the hustle and bustle of modern life into an oasis of prayerful calm from an earlier age."—TripAdvisor Member, Mumbai, India

Begijnhof, Gedempte Begijnensloot, Begijnhof 30, 020 622 1918

"On Saturday morning, take your kids to the small biological market on the Noordermarkt. A nice playground on the middle of the market with lots of small children running around." Locals "have their coffee and hot chocolate with Dutch 'appeltaart' (apple pie) in the small cafés around the market square."—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

Noordermarkt, Jordaan

ADVENTURE

Feel like a true Amsterdammer and go for a spin along the Amstel River. "The staff at Mike's Bikes can be really funny. When they're not too busy, they'll take time out for a longer chat. They have always treated me great and given me fantastic tips on where to go."—TripAdvisor Member, Copenhagen, Denmark

Mike's Bikes, 134 Kerkstraat, 020 622 7970

"While canoeing through protected wetlands, surrounded by birds and the famous Dutch clouds, I got a real sense of how people must have lived a thousand years ago.

Wetlands Safari was a beautiful canoe trip!"—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

Wetlands Safari, 020 686 3445

Ride horseback "through the Amsterdamse Bos on the border between Amsterdam and Amstelveen. There are multiple horse tracks for both recreation and semi-professional horse riding. Have a safe ride!"—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

Amsterdamse Bos, Amstelveenseweg

EDUCATIONAL/HISTORICAL

"The Van Gogh Museum follows his life from beginning to end, and the sense of struggle with a window to hope is evident in his work. Unaware of Van Gogh's life, I was soon enveloped by the life of a man so tragic and so beautiful. I was weeping by his final piece and moved for the rest of the day."—TripAdvisor Member, United Kingdom

Van Gogh Museum, Paulus Potterstraat 7, 020 570 5200

"I would absolutely recommend a trip to the Rembrandt House. It really feels like a mini-museum. You not only get to see the type of house that Rembrandt owned (and then lost), but there is a significant amount of artwork from Rembrandt and the other Dutch Masters. I am not particularly an art lover, but I found this to be a nice experience."—TripAdvisor Member, Washington, D.C.

Museum Het Rembrandthuis (Rembrandt House), Jodenbreestraat 4, 020 520 0400

"I found Anne Frank House (Anne Frankhuis) very informative, and a very chilling and moving experience: emotions shared in varying degrees by virtually all of the many nationalities of all ages touring the building."—TripAdvisor Member, Jerusalem, Israel

Anne Frank House (Anne Frankhuis), Prinsengracht 267, 020 556 7105

"...very informative, and a very chilling and moving experience"

RELAXATION

"Sauna Deco was not at all how I had imagined it. Upon walking through the doors, you are met by superb 1920s style deco, friendly staff and are transported to a world that only the rich usually get to enjoy. I was very anxious about baring my all, having never done it before, but after the first ten minutes I started to relax, and enjoy the peace and tranquility of the whole experience."—TripAdvisor Member, Essex, England

Sauna Deco, Herengracht 115, 020 623 8215

Enjoy the fantastic displays at Bloemenmarkt, the world's only floating flower market. "Colorful. Besides fresh flowers there were all kinds of herbs, cactuses, orchids and many other plants."—TripAdvisor Member, Berlin, Germany

Bloemenmarkt, Singel Canal

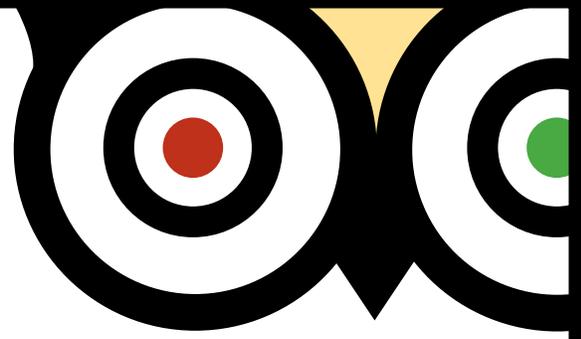

"...a world that only the rich usually get to enjoy."

"One of my favorite neighborhoods in Amsterdam, the Jordaan boasts a multitude of interesting shops, art galleries, markets, restaurants and national monuments. Stand on the Berenstraat Bridge that crosses the Prinsengracht for a lovely view of the canal and the Westerkerk, which has Amsterdam's highest church tower."—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

The Jordaan, west of Central Amsterdam

How to Get Around

"I recommend that you get the I Amsterdam Card—you get free trams and buses and entrance into most of the major museums and sites. You also get 2nd free canal boat rides and discounts on a lot of other attractions. We got the 48-hour card for €48. Well worth it!"—TripAdvisor Member, Cork, Ireland

"Amsterdam's canals are the best and most unique feature. Venice of the North? Forget it. Venice is the Amsterdam of the South. St. Nicolaas runs 12-person open-air boats and the captains know a lot about Amsterdam and aren't like the big boats where they press play on the tape and try not to fall asleep. One of the best things to do in Amsterdam!"—TripAdvisor Member, New York, N.Y.

"You can easily walk from one place to the other—it is a great way to discover this charming city. Get a good map of the city: with all the canals, bridges and streets (that all look alike the first time), it can get confusing. Also, make sure not to walk on bike trails and to check for bikes before crossing them."—TripAdvisor Member

WHERE to eat

FAMILIES

For fun and good eats, visit Boerderij Meerzicht in Amsterdam Bos, the largest of the city's many parks. "You walk through a beautiful forest and arrive at a pancake restaurant in the woods. It feels very Hansel and Gretel."—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

Boerderij Meerzicht, Koenenkade 56, 020 679 2744

"The quality at The Pancake Bakery is excellent. The menu contains a good choice of both savoury and sweet pancakes, as well as omelettes and a few other items. They also do specials and children's sized pancakes."—TripAdvisor Member, Liverpool, U.K.

The Pancake Bakery, Prinsengracht 191, 120 625 1333

"Yes, you can get a conventional 'biefburger' at Burgermeester, but you can also get a 'mini trio,' which lets you try three mini-burgers, from the nine varieties they feature. The strawberry shake was also great—it tasted like real strawberries."—TripAdvisor Member, Palo Alto, Calif.

Burgermeester, Albert Cuypstraat 48, 020 670 9339 (and other locations)

ROMANCE

"Toscanini is one of the best restaurants in the world. The modern Italian cuisine, although expensive, is of the highest quality. The atmosphere is relaxed, with people enjoying themselves, but not too loudly."—TripAdvisor Member, Berlin, Germany

Toscanini, Lindengracht 75, 020 623 2813

"I can think of no restaurant more appropriate for a romantic dinner than De Belhamel. The back dining room is art nouveau perfect and has a gorgeous nighttime view of the Brouwersgracht."—TripAdvisor Member, Austin, Texas

De Belhamel, Brouwersgracht 60, 020 622 1095

"I booked a special birthday celebration for my wife at Greetje. After a complimentary glass of champagne, we were taken to a table overlooking the canal, the best spot for a romantic meal. Everything—starters, mains and desserts—was cooked perfectly. A truly great experience."—TripAdvisor Member, Glasgow, Scotland

Greetje, Peperstraat 23, 120 779 7450

"...art nouveau perfect"

BUDGET

"De Pata Negra is a small Spanish tapas restaurant. Reputed to be the best in Amsterdam and is always filled with locals. Great food, and the price is reasonable for what you get."—TripAdvisor Member, Netherlands

De Pata Negra, Utrechtsestraat 124, 020 422 6250

"Kam Yin is cheap, cheerful and does the trick. From locals to tourists, it's constantly turning over tables. They have Chinese and Surinamese food, and it all looked great. The portions are large, so consider sharing!"—TripAdvisor Member, Las Vegas, Nev.

Kam Yin, Warmoesstraat 6, 120 625 3115

"We wanted a place that served good food fast, not fast food. The food at Wok to Walk was great, the quality was wonderful and the employees were friendly. You just pick a rice or noodle and then add what you want to it. It was quick and easy."—TripAdvisor Member, Buenos Aires, Argentina

Wok to Walk, Kolksteeg 8, 020 625 0721 (and other locations)

WHERE to eat

HEALTH-CONSCIOUS

Betty's "is the most amazing vegetarian restaurant! The menu changes from week to week depending on the availability of fresh produce, and the owner is very knowledgeable."—TripAdvisor Member

Betty's, Rijnstraat 75, 020 644 5896

"The extensive menu is playful."

"De Bakkerswinkel is always full. The extensive menu is playful. It lists healthy salads, soup, 'minis' (sandwiches), true Dutch 'boterhammen' and many kinds of quiches and cakes. If you don't mind the hungry cat walking around (it is better than having mice run amok), this is a wonderful place for breakfast, brunch, lunch or high tea."—TripAdvisor Member, Stourbridge, United Kingdom

De Bakkerswinkel, Warmoesstraat 69, 020 489 8000

Maoz Vegetarian offers "really nice unlimited salads and sauces to add to your salad box or large kebab. Ideal, sit in or on a bench overlooking canal for lunch while sight-seeing. Healthy, cheap and quick."—TripAdvisor Member, United Kingdom

Maoz Vegetarian, Muntplein 1, 020 420 7435 (and other locations)

TripAdvisor members have posted more than 3,000,000 photos on the site. The good, the bad and the very candid. It's almost like being there!

"The fondue and entrecote at Café Bern are to die for! The place is very cozy and I'd suggest making reservations in advance. Another tip: Go with a very healthy appetite so you can enjoy every last morsel!"—TripAdvisor Member, Philadelphia, Pa.

Cafe Bern, Nieuwmarkt 9, 020 622 0034

"Visaandeschelde is the best seafood restaurant I've ever been to. It does come at a steep price, but the food is definitely worth it. The head chef prepares combos that, at first glance, seem strange and daring, but are absolutely delicious!"—TripAdvisor Member, Amsterdam

Visaandeschelde, Scheldeplein 4, 020 675 1583

"Kop van Jut is a cozy little restaurant very close to the Leidseplein. The food is simple, but very good. No tourists to be seen, but they do have an English menu."—TripAdvisor Member

Kop van Jut, Leidsekruisstraat 24, 020 320 7722

“Our expectations have been surpassed” by Hotel Fita. “We were received with the most friendly welcome and were impeccably served. The hotel is located at a fantastic spot, just next to the Van Gogh Museum and the Rijksmuseum.”—TripAdvisor Member, Zurich, Switzerland

Hotel Fita, Jan Luykenstraat 37, 020 679 0976

“My family all agreed that the Moevenpick was wonderful.” Though it’s a tram-ride away from the action, “the combination of modern design, many amenities and friendly staff makes this a great hotel. During rainy days, we looked forward to heading back to the hotel.”—TripAdvisor Member, Toronto, Ontario

Moevenpick Hotel Amsterdam City Center, Piet Heinkade 11, 020 519 1200

Hotel Zandbergen is a “lovely, clean, bright and airy hotel. Location next to Vondelpark is excellent and so convenient. The surrounding posh shopping district was a real find. The cleaning staff did a great job as I don’t think I have seen a bathroom sparkle like that before.”—TripAdvisor Member, Midlands, U.K.

Hotel Zandbergen, Willemsparkweg 205, 020 676 9321

ROMANCE

In arguably the best location in the city on the Herengracht Canal, Banks Mansion offers guests a unique mix of authentic Amsterdam ambiance and contemporary luxury. “Everything about our stay was excellent, but what made it special was the caring, attentive staff that bent over backwards to help us at every turn.”—TripAdvisor Member, Philadelphia, Pa.

Banks Mansion, Herengracht 519-525, 020 420 0055

Seven Bridges is a 300-year-old canal house in the historic heart of Amsterdam. “The rooms are the most beautiful examples of the long tradition of Dutch excellence in decoration using a charming eclectic style. Each room is unique. The excellent service is discreet, the rooms VERY clean. A true Amsterdam experience located two blocks from Rembrandtplein on the most beautiful canal in the city.”—TripAdvisor Member, Bradenton, Fla.

Seven Bridges Hotel, Reguliersgracht 31, 020 623 1329

“If you want a hotel in Amsterdam which is clean and tidy, has friendly staff, has excellent facilities, and is in an ideal location (i.e. close enough to the action of Leidseplein and Dam Square while being far enough away to avoid the more ‘undesirable’ areas of the city), then Hotel Estherea is for you.”—TripAdvisor Member, Tyne & Wear, U.K.

Hotel Estherea, Singel 303-309, 020 624 5146

“A true Amsterdam experience”

BUDGET

“Had an amazing stay at the Owl Hotel. It’s a small place in a great location, really central with all amenities and transport links close by, but in a really quiet and sweet street. The staff were great, so helpful and friendly. The rooms are small but are all you need: comfortable, safe, clean and warm.”—TripAdvisor Member, Wales

Owl Hotel, Roemer Visscherstraat 1, 120 618 9484

“I have nothing but praise for Hotel Brouwer. From the tasty breakfast to the spectacular views, this hotel is the best deal in Amsterdam. We were central to everything. Yes, you are in a Red Light District, but that’s easily ignorable, and you are just a couple of blocks from the main shopping area.”—TripAdvisor Member, Logan, Utah

Hotel Brouwer, Singel 83, 020 624 6358

“Hotel Aalders is our home away from home. It is ideally located and the rooms are clean, comfortable and well-priced. The staff are welcoming, cheerful and extremely helpful.”—TripAdvisor Member, Vancouver, British Columbia

Hotel Aalders, Jan Luykenstraat 13-15, 020 662 0116

LUXURY

“We were so pleasantly surprised by The Toren. Situated in an old canal house, the decor is baroque and the overall effect is far more luxurious and visually satisfying than the concept-less, bare bones style of many other places we’ve stayed. Sumptuous, cozy and a great staff, it’s the best hotel in Amsterdam.”—TripAdvisor Member, Istanbul, Turkey

The Toren, Keizersgracht 164, 020 622 6352

Sofitel the Grand Amsterdam is a classic, Baroque-style hotel. The site of the 1966 wedding of Queen Beatrix, “The Grand” continues to retain its if-it’s-good-enough-for-royalty style. “Every minute was an excellent experience. It’s a beautiful hotel in a very central location.”—TripAdvisor Member, Canada

Sofitel the Grand Amsterdam, Oudezijds Voorburgwal 197, 020 555 3111

The Grand Hotel Amrath is “luxury in the heart of Amsterdam! The gothic architecture was beautiful. The candle-lit breakfast was unique. And the rooms and hotel were exceptionally clean. I would come to Amsterdam just for this hotel!”—TripAdvisor Member, Melbourne, Australia

Grand Hotel Amrath Amsterdam, Prins Hendrikkade 108, 020 552 0000
